2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, YEAR B

They saw where Jesus lived and they stayed with him.

First Reading

1 Samuel 3:3-10, 19

A reading from the first book of Samuel

Samuel was lying in the sanctuary of the Lord where the ark of God was, when the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' He answered, 'Here I am.' Then he ran to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli said, 'I did not call. Go back and lie down.' So he went and lay down. Once again the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' He replied, 'I did not call you, my son; go back and lie down.' Samuel had as yet no knowledge of the Lord and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. Once again the Lord called, the third time. He got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli then understood that it was the Lord who was calling the boy, and he said to Samuel, 'Go and lie down, and if someone calls say, "Speak Lord, your servant is listening"'. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. The Lord then came and stood by, calling as he had done before, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel answered, 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.' Samuel grew up and the Lord was with him and let no word of his fall to the ground.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 39:2, 4, 7-10

R. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry. He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God. R.
You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear.
You do not ask for holocaust and victim. Instead, here am I. R.
In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will.
My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart. R.
Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.
My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord. R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 6:13-15, 17-20

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

The body is not meant for fornication; it is for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. God who raised the Lord from the dead, will by his power raise us up too. You know, surely, that your bodies are members making up the body of Christ; anyone who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him. Keep away from fornication. All the other sins are committed outside the body; but to fornicate is to sin against your own body. Your body, you know, is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you since you received him from God. You are not your own property; you have been bought and paid for. That is why you should use your body for the glory of God.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 1:35-42

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

As John stood with two of his disciples, Jesus passed, and John stared hard at him and said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God.' Hearing this, the two disciples followed Jesus. Jesus turned round, saw them following and said, 'What do you want?' They answered, 'Rabbi,' - which means Teacher - 'where do you live?' 'Come and see' he replied; so they went and saw where he lived, and stayed with him the rest of that day. It was about the tenth hour.

One of these two who became followers of Jesus after hearing what John had said was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. Early next morning, Andrew met his brother and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' - which means the Christ - and he took Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked hard at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John; you are to be called Cephas' - meaning Rock.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sunday Intercessions

We pray for Pope Francis that he may be a wise teacher of the faithful, a pastor of deep compassion, and clear voice for peace everywhere.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world-wide church, that believers everywhere will follow the example of Samuel and hear and heed the call of God.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the victims of war, poverty, famine, disease and unemployment, that they may receive the help they need.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for people dealing with challenging situations in the year ahead, including students embarking on new courses of study, the unemployed seeking work, and those facing their first year without a loved one.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for ourselves that, like Andrew, we will be eager to make Jesus known to others and willingly accompany and encourage them on the journey of faith.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the recently deceased and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time, that they will be called by God into the company of the saints.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

GOSPEL DISCUSSION

God speaks in many ways and through people and events that happen in our lives. At one stage in the story, Jesus asked the disciples, 'What do you want?' If Jesus were to ask the same question to you today, what would you say? Jesus' invitation to the disciples to 'Come and see', is an invitation to everyone in every age.

Come and see what it means to be a disciple!

In this story from John's gospel, the author has the disciples exclaiming 'We have found the Messiah'. This understanding of Jesus' identity occurs only in John's gospel at this early stage. In the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke), the disciples are presented as constantly struggling to come to some clear understanding of the true identity of Jesus.

- What sort of a person do they think Jesus was?
- What words would they use to describe him?
- Who were some of his friends?
- What do they like the most about Jesus?

Jesus calls Peter 'Cephas' which means 'rock'. Why do you think Jesus changed Peter's name? What image do you have of a 'rock'? Why would this be a good name for Peter? There are several names or titles attributed to Jesus in this reading: Lamb of God; Rabbi (teacher) and Messiah (Christ or the anointed one).
